Career & Transfer

Accountants and healthcare accountants are highly employable graduates who qualify for a wide variety of jobs. More career opportunities exist in accounting today than ever before. Businesses are being held to a higher standard of financial reporting due to recent corporate scandals and financial crises. In healthcare, the onset of Electronic Health Records (EHR) has generated an increased ability to gather data to assist in the reimbursement and revenue management of healthcare organizations. As a result, the demand for accountants, revenue analysts, and auditors has expanded. Because accounting has always been considered the language of business, demand for bookkeeping, payroll, accounting, and auditing technicians remains strong. An accounting degree is versatile and allows graduates to pursue many different career paths.

Students planning to pursue a bachelor's degree in accounting or healthcare administration are strongly encouraged to consult with an advisor about transfer opportunities for specific four-year colleges.

Certification

The Certified Revenue Cycle Representative (CRCR) certification is granted by the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) professional organization. Recertification must be obtained every two years. The CRCR credential is valuable for those that work within a hospital revenue cycle or work in a department that supports the hospital revenue cycle. The Certified Technical Specialist (CTS) certification is granted by the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) professional organization. This certification is designed for accounting professionals in the healthcare finance management profession. The State of Minnesota offers 2 levels of licensure for Accountants. The Registered Accounting Practitioner (RAP) certification requires a 2-year Accounting Degree and authorizes the licensee to perform but not supervise all accounting services on a formal audit. The Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license requires 5 years of college education (150 credit hours). CPAs are authorized to perform all accounting services and can supervise audits.
